

T

his morning our sermon will be on ways to overcome our adversary, the devil, and his tricks and schemes.

Bible Class Opening: Spruce up your heavenly resume with an opportunity to teach the 3-4th grade Sunday School class. See one of the elders if interested.

In Need of Prayer: Tim Gill has been at Baptist East in Louisville. He will be going in for therapy and wanted all to know he is hanging in there. Larry Tinsley, brother to Tony, has been in Louisville in the hospital and is now in Frazier Rehab in Jewish hospital. Mack Harlan continues to get therapy at the nursing home, and Gene Hagan is about the same at home. Robert McPherson had heart bypass surgery at Kentuckiana. Phyllis Dyer has been in the local hospital. Buel Abney had a heart attack and is in TJ Samson doing very poorly.

VBS: This is scheduled for July 12-15. We will be getting a sign-up sheet for teachers out soon.

Elders: Steve Carter has been appointed as a bishop of Mt. Gilead. Thanks be to God for his wise decision to have elders shepherd his people.

House to House, Heart to Heart: The latest edition for those who don't get it in the mail is out near the free tracts in the side hall. Feel free to take as many as you like.

Gospel Meeting. Berea's meeting will be June 14-17. Tim and Jerry Bean will be preaching alternating nights at 7:00pm.

VBS at Germany will start today at 6:00pm and continue Monday-Wednesday at 6:30pm.

State Line Camp:
Still looking for more to work in athletics. We need some more squirt guns. I also need food items for our Canteen such as individually wrapped snacks, chips, etc..

Simplicity of Truth

In all my running around, in all my crowded life, as I try to find more things and more activities that will make God pleased with me, Micah 6:8 creeps in and defuses all my noble but erroneous intentions. The prophet has put it very simply, very eloquently. Look at this verse . . . what do you think I could bring before the Lord of the universe? What? With what could I hope to impress Him? And what will be the teachings and heritage that I leave with my children? What will be their overall impression of how God would have us walk in this world? I think this is the beauty of the passage: No great theology. No ten-point sermon. No list of self-improvement plans. Just the simplicity of truth. Three things. Three things that cover the Ten Commandments, the Golden rule, the Sermon on the Mount:

What does the Lord require of you?

To act justly and to love mercy and to walk humbly with your God.

(Micah 6:8)

Every child in kindergarten knows what justice means. (We share our blocks. If one person gets juice, we all do). Every toddler knows how to love kindness and mercy. (That's right, kiss the baby gently . . . aww, that's good.) And children also happen to be quite good at walking humbly with God. Maybe it's because they haven't done anything "great" yet for God. Or maybe it's because in their young lives they haven't offended God so badly that they feel the need to make up for it. Whatever the reason, children have a wonderful ability to accept the gifts of God at face value, without feeling pride or embarrassment. (over)

We as “mature” adults struggle with it. But the more we can walk humbly with God—accepting His wonderful goodness to us, His tender graciousness toward us, His unfailing mercies that are new every morning—the more we can turn to others and love mercy . . . and do justice. And encourage our children to do the same.

What must I do?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10
