

Tidings From Timothy

What a winter! This one is like the kind I remember growing up. Dad would put me or my brother on a big shovel and drag us down the hill. We didn't even need a sled. Anyway, we hope you all are safe and use good judgment on the road this week. I want us to use our time "koopied-up" to reflect on spiritual things. This morning we focus on the evidence for our right relationship to God. Let each one be fully persuaded in his own mind as to his or her personal salvation. Tonight we focus on, "What we learned from the Census." It is an evangelistic lesson to try and face our challenges to win souls in 2011.

Mission Reports: There are a couple of reports out at the desk on some of the works we have supported. One in Africa and another in east KY.

In Need of Prayer: Gary Bartly has had knee surgery and is recovering now at home. Trent Whitehead has been in the local hospital and will hopefully get to go home very soon. The Keys are both now back at home and doing some better. Charley Wilkerson is to have surgery on his knee Thursday in Nashville.
