

Tidings From Timothy

Make sure to be a part of both worship services today if you can. This morning, I will have a sermon on Jesus, we haven't studied on the person of the Christ in quite a while and I think you will find it interesting. Tonight we continue our Study of Ephesians 4 with a look at the "one hope" unity taught in that chapter. Thanks again to all those who filled in for me last week.

Four! Get ready to golf. On Saturday the 10th we will have a fun golf outing at the Country Club. Make sure you are signed up on the list at the desk by Wednesday, and be there by 8am on Saturday morning.

In Need of Prayer: Phillip Pitcock has had a hard time after breaking his leg and is in St. Matthew's Manor (a rehab facility). Please consider writing him to encourage him through this tough time, address: 227 Brown's Lane, Louisville, KY 40207.

Pantry: More Soup!!

Singing: There will be a singing this afternoon at 2pm at the Clementsville church of Christ.

Gospel Meeting: A meeting begins today at Pine Branch in Clay County. I will be doing the preaching on Monday – Friday with Singing at 6:30 and preaching at 7pm. Brother Ken Miller, the preacher at Pine Branch, will be substituting for me on Wednesday here at Mt. Gilead. Ken is a good Bible student so feel free to let him have it with any questions on Romans.

Congratulations: Lorene Lyons Will be 99 on Saturday, October 10. She would love cards at the Nursing Home and congratulatory visits.

We also want to congratulate Chad and Laurie Hill, who were married yesterday. May they have many long and happy years together.

The editorial in our paper read: "Heaven on wheels - Mother Teresa goes to Washington."

It described this little nun from Calcutta getting up to speak at this year's National Prayer Breakfast and saying all of the wrong things...right in front of the President. She skipped all of the traditional, feel good opening and got right down to business.

The greatest destroyer of peace today is abortion, because it is a war against the child, direct killing of the innocent child, murder by the mother herself. And if we accept that a mother can kill even her own child, how can we tell other people not to kill one another?

How's that for putting the whammy on someone? And she wasn't through.

By abortion, the mother does not learn to love, but kills even her own child to solve her problems. And, by abortion, the father is told that he does not have to take any responsibility at all for the child he has brought into the world...So abortion just leads to more abortion. Any country that accepts abortion is not teaching its people to love, but to use any violence to get what they want.

Our editor commented, "Mother Teresa would be easier to listen to if she were harder to understand, if she talked all around her subject or skipped over it lightly. But apparently she's never learned to obfuscate. This is a serious social handicap, yet she is admired by millions."

Truth doesn't always come with a nice soft touch. Take for instance John the Baptist. "You brood of vipers! Who warned you to flee from the wrath to come?" (Matthew 3:7). Jesus was shocked that some were shocked with John. "What did you go out into the desert to see? A reed swayed by the wind?" (Matthew 11:7).

Who knows? Maybe a little more impolite plain talk is the very dose our polite, politically correct, society needs.

I wonder who will be the speaker at next year's National Prayer Breakfast? Reckon they will furnish any guidelines?

What must I do?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

⇒ Yes! I want to learn more about the Holy Bible. Please enroll me in the eight lesson FREE Bible Correspondence Course (we even pay for the postage).

Verses in preparation for the Lord's Supper:

John 12:24-28 ²⁴Verily, verily, I say unto you, Except a corn of wheat fall into the ground and die, it abideth alone: but if it die, it bringeth forth much fruit. ²⁵He that loveth his life shall lose it; and he that hateth his life in this world shall keep it unto life eternal. ²⁶If any man serve me, let him follow me; and where I am, there shall also my servant be: if any man serve me, him will my Father honour. ²⁷Now is my soul troubled; and what shall I say? Father, save me from this hour: but for this cause came I unto this hour. ²⁸Father, glorify thy name.
