

Tidings From Timothy

IN one more week we will have our Gospel Meeting. Brother Chad Ramsey is getting his lessons ready and will be with us for the 14th to the 18th. Won't you make plans to come each night you can, and to bring a friend. We will have a fellowship meal after the services next Sunday morning.

This morning we will be worshipping God in song and the preaching will be about the songs that we sing. I have done this before here at Mt. Gilead and look for ward to our worship today.

In need of Prayer: Ezra Proffitt is continuing to have tests done as they begin to treat his lymphoma. He celebrated a big birthday yesterday and told me he was 58, but he gets his numbers reversed. It was good to see brother Key back with us. Alene Blythe is out of the hospital but still not doing all that well. We want to extend our sympathies to the families of Morene Biggerstaff and Bernice Whittimore. Mary Ruth Short was in the hospital but has now been released.

Singing: There is a singing today at Clementsville at 2pm.

Gospel Meeting: Advertisements are in the foyer for our meeting. Please take some and distribute them.

This article is getting a little old, but the point is still valid and inspiring to us who believe:

AT THE FOOTBALL GAME

A while back, Jody McCloud, who is the principal of Roane County High School, Kingston, TN read the following statement over the public address system at one of the football games:

“It has always been the custom at Roane County high School football games, to say a prayer and play the National Anthem, to honor God and Country. Due to a recent ruling by the Supreme Court, I am told that saying a prayer is a violation of Federal Case Law.

As I understand the law at this time, I can use this public facility to approve of sexual perversion and call it ‘an alternative lifestyle,’ and if someone is offended, that’s OK.

I can use it to condone sexual promiscuity, by dispensing condoms and calling it, ‘safe sex.’ If someone is offended, that’s OK.

I can even use this public facility to present the merits of killing an unborn baby as a ‘viable mean of birth control.’ If someone is offended, no problem.

I can designate a school day as ‘Earth Day’ and involve the students in activities to worship religiously and praise the goddess ‘Mother Earth’ and call it ‘ecology.’

I can use literature, videos and presentations in the classroom that depict people with strong, traditional Christian convictions as ‘simple minded and ignorant’ and call it ‘enlightenment.’

However, if anyone uses this facility to honor God and to ask Him to bless this event with safety and good sportsmanship, the Federal Case Law is violated.

This appears to be inconsistent at best, and at worst, diabolical. Apparently, we are to be tolerant of everything and anyone, except God and His Commandments.

Nevertheless, as a school principal, I frequently ask staff and students to abide by the rules with which they do not necessarily agree. For me to do otherwise would be inconsistent at best and at worst, hypocritical. I suffer from that affliction enough unintentionally. I certainly do not need to add an intentional transgression.

For this reason, I shall ‘Render unto Caesar that which is Caesar’s,’ and refrain from praying at this time. However, if you feel inspired to honor, praise and thank God and as Him, in the name of Jesus, to bless this event, please feel free to do so. As far as I know, that’s not against the law – yet.”

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

Judges 5:1 - 3 ¹Then sang Deborah and Barak the son of Abinoam on that day, saying, ²Praise ye the LORD for the avenging of Israel, when the people willingly offered themselves. ³Hear, O ye kings; give ear, O ye princes; I, even I, will sing unto the LORD; I will sing praise to the LORD God of Israel.
