

Tidings From Timothy

Our Gospel Meeting is here! Brother Chad Ramsey has prayerfully considered the lessons he will preach for us this week and he has some good things to tell us from the word of God.. Won't you make plans to come each night you can, and to bring a friend? We will have a fellowship meal after the services this morning, so just stay and eat.

It certainly isn't too late to advertise for our Meeting. Tell someone to come with you this week and provide transportation. Talk it up at the parking lot a work, at home with your family, and above all pray for this series of Gospel Meetings.

Meetings: For some reason there are a lot of meetings in the area right this week. We expect you to be at this one if you are a member of Mt. Gilead, and our Meeting is longer than most of the others, so don't hesitate to invite our sister congregations to come and see us Wednesday and Thursday.

In need of Prayer: Ezra Proffitt's treatment for his Lymphoma is at a stage where he will have treatments and then tests to check on the effectiveness of the treatments. They believe they have found some good doctors for him and I know he has good churches praying for him. Alene Blythe is presently out of the hospital but has been very weak lately. Garrett Lyon is recovering from an injury suffered in the ball game Friday night. He will have an MRI on Monday.

Remember that services tonight and each night through Thursday are at 7pm!

In Uncertain Times

Sudden unexpected events shake up a lot of people. What amazes me is that they feel as if they are no longer secure in this life. The truth is that they never did have security in this life! I don't worry about Terrorism or the weather or the economy. My security is in heaven.

We don't know how long we will be able to live here. Each day is a blessing from God, and there are any number of things that could cause our lives here to come to an end. The real problem is that many in the world get to feeling comfortable with their existence. They like their life here and now. They take no thought for eternity. Some remember God when they get older (cf. Eccles. 12:14), but many die without ever letting thoughts of eternity bother them at all. This is so sad. They are living in denial. When something bad in the news (like terrorism), an accident, or uncertain economic times come, they just can't handle it. They have no one (God) to turn to. They yearn for the days when they ignorantly thought that life would just go on and on the same forever.

This doesn't have to be a description of you. If you know that life here on earth is fleeting, if you know that God has prepared a judgment day, and if you yearn to worship the Lord according to the precious words of the Bible – no more and no less – then come and pay us a visit at the Mount Gilead church of Christ. You will receive a warm welcome, and find answers for both this life and the one to come. Come see us, you'll be glad you did. --Tim

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

Psalms 122:1-2 & 5- 9 I was glad when they said unto me, Let us go into the house of the LORD. ² Our feet shall stand within thy gates, O Jerusalem. ⁵ For there are set thrones of judgment, the thrones of the house of David. ⁶ Pray for the peace of Jerusalem: they shall prosper that love thee. ⁷ Peace be within thy walls, and prosperity within thy palaces. ⁸ For my brethren and companions' sakes, I will now say, Peace be within thee. ⁹ Because of the house of the LORD our God I will seek thy good.
