

Tidings From Timothy

Lots of activities, mainly singings and Meetings are going on right now in the surrounding congregations. Remember the support we got during our Meeting and go help them with their efforts to spread the gospel as well:

Area Singings: First Friday night in November there will be a singing at New Hope in Clay County with refreshments to follow. First Friday in December there will be a singing at Clementsville with refreshments to follow. I have a big time at these singings ☺

Meetings: There are several Meetings about, but two are going on this week: Northwest church in Clay County has a Meeting starting today and going through the 28th with different speakers each night, 7pm services starting Monday. Moss church has a meeting this week with weekday services starting at 7pm each evening, Alan Judd is the speaker.

Today's events: Today we have a Morning sermon on "What happens at Death?" followed by Jail service (your not invited, but pray that the inmates turn from sin to God) and then the Nursing Home service at 3pm. Tonight, we have a special treat as some young men preach to us and conduct the services, so come out and support them.

Gospel Meeting Recordings: We have several more copies of the audio of the Sunday night service of our Meeting out front. As you get your copy, mark your name off the list. I will make more of these until we have them all distributed. I am still working on the video's of the other nights. I hope to get them all on 1 DVD, and post them on our website as well.

In Need of Prayer: Lauren McHenry is now doing better. Lucill Abney is doing the best she can in the NHC nursing home in Glasgow. My good friend from Culleoka, Ricky Wimberly, passed on. His service will be Tuesday so I will not have a live radio program that day.

The statistics are frightening; I wonder what the latest census will say...

From a Tract on Marriage

Besides people living in fornication, another great concern is all the children we see living in broken homes or homes without both a mother and father-figure. According to the US Census Bureau, In 1980, 77 percent of all children under 18 lived with two parents; 73 percent did in 1990 and 69 percent did in 2000.<sup>1</sup> The problem presents a unique challenge to the church. How will we get the children to come to church consistently without home support? The issue must be dealt with head-on. Each Christian should determine whether the neighbor they want to help is in a marriage situation they can help, or if the home is permanently apart. God desires one man with one woman (Ephesians 5:25ff) guiding their house according to God's rules (Ephesians 6:1-4). If we can restore the original marriage, we have done well. If there is no help for the separation of husband and wife (for example, he may be an abusive adulterer), then our main concern will be to see if we can get the innocent parties (children or innocent spouse) in church. Christians should encourage a stable home in which God is respected and Jesus is loved. Invite those from broken homes into your own home and show them this love by example.

What must I do?

Lord's Supper Reading: 1 Corinthians 11:23 - 29 <sup>23</sup>For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; <sup>24</sup>and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, "Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me." <sup>25</sup>In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, "This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me." <sup>26</sup>For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord's death till He comes. <sup>27</sup>Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. <sup>28</sup>But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. <sup>29</sup>For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord's body
