

Tidings From Timothy

Local evangelism: I had about 25 visits for the month of October. This is actually about 15 short of where I need to be. I think sometimes, like many preachers, I don't know who it's best to see next and I end up not seeing as many as I would want through indecision. If you know of someone who needs special encouragement to come to church or might be interested in a Bible study, then just let me know.

Our Gospel Meeting in October went well with 1 baptism (Leah Bartley). We had pretty good crowds and brother Hester did a good job.

I have a handful of people actively completing their Bible Correspondence Courses. Also, we continue to receive good response from the community concerning the daily and weekend Radio Program. The Nursing Home service went very well with a good crowd on hand. Brethren, let us keep on sowing the seed, we will reap in due time, if we faint not.

In Need of Prayer

Bobby Gerald is having kidney stone problems. Eugene Emberton has been recovering at home. Please continue to remember Janet Houchens and those in the Nursing Home in your prayers.

Birthdays

Sherilyn Stinson 8th
Bobby Biggerstaff 6th

Happy Anniversary! to Robert and Jean McPherson – November 6th & to Albert and Madie Kerr – November 10th.

Visitors

I want to speak with you about visitors because it is important for us to deal with them as a Christian ought. When we have someone new visiting with us (or it may be a regular visitor that I don't know) please get their name and a phone number or address. Encourage them to sign the guest registry in the foyer. I can't follow-up on people if I didn't know they came. Those who visit at church feel welcome to come back when the church sends them a letter or if I can make a brief visit to let them know how much we appreciated their visit.

When greeting a visitor, make sure to smile and give them a warm handshake. Scoot over and give visitors plenty of room to sit. Remember that you never get a second chance to make a "first impression."

Youth: I need some people to suggest a good evening for a Christmas devotional. This will be a time of singing, Bible Study, and the exchange of a light-hearted gift for those in grades 7 to 12. Connie and I would like to host this devotional before years end, but I need an idea of what date to announce. Last year, we had a good time, but weather kept our crowd down. Odds are that Old Man Winter won't get us two years in a row. Be looking for more announcements about this event.

Meeting There is a gospel meeting starting tonight with the county-wide youth devotional at Tompkinsville church of Christ. The Monday through Wednesday services will be at 7pm with Jack Honeycut speaking.

This morning's sermon: I will be preaching from Amos in the Old Testament this morning. Tonight I will have a Question and Answer Sermon where I deal with various Bible Questions people have. Next Sunday night is when I will preach on "How to Reach Young People." If you aren't taking advantage of our Sunday evening worship, you just don't know what you are missing!

What Must I do to be saved?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

⇒ Yes! I want to learn more about the Holy Bible. Please enroll me in the eight lesson FREE Bible Correspondence Course (we even pay for the postage).
