

Judgments can be good or bad. Each one must be made carefully by the standards that God has set. Some people think no one can judge about anything. Some think they can project themselves into the future and put people in Heaven or Hell on a whim. There are clear guidelines in scripture on this subject and we will study on judgment this morning. The main text will be Matthew 7:1-5 with a worksheet posted online at www.mtgileadchurch.net/sermon

A helping hand: I want to thank those who helped with gutter and leaf work at some of our widows' houses yesterday. Your help is appreciated. The Lord remembers a benevolent spirit and a good work ethic.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: We have several still waiting on procedures or results, but there is little change from the list of last week. Luke Whitehead was told in Cincinnati that he might come back in 4 weeks but they are monitoring how his c-pap machine helps him over time. Right now, it seems to be helping him a lot. I should clarify from last week that Brenda Harlan is not going for a new procedure in December, but will hear back from what they did this month.

Youth Service Tonight: Tyler will be preaching tonight. The subject is: How Can I Be Thankful.

Singing: The Clementsville church of Christ in Clay County will have their annual singing on December 5th at 6:30pm with a supper to follow.

I AM THANKFUL

for the mess to clean after a party because it means I have been surrounded by friends .
 ... for the clothes that fit a little too snugly because it means I have enough to eat.
 ... for my shadow who watches me work because it means I am out in the sunshine .
 ... for a lawn that needs mowing, windows that need cleaning and gutters that need fixing because it means I have a home .
 ... for all the complaining I hear about the government because it means we have freedom of speech .
 ... for the spot I find at the far end of the parking lot because it means I am capable of walking .
 ... for the lady behind me in church who sings off key because it means that I can hear .
 ... for the piles of laundry and ironing because it means I have clothes to wear .
 ... for weariness and aching muscles at the end of the day because it means I have been productive .
 ... for the alarm that goes off in the early morning hours because it means that I am alive.

And let the peace of God rule in your hearts, to which also you were called in one body; and be thankful.

Col. 3:15
