

Tidings From Timothy

T His morning the sermon will be on grace. There is an outline for you to follow and make notes on starting on this page. Tonight, we continue our study of Ephesians.

We need to be thinking about getting ready for our holiday activities. If I remember correctly, some got together and told me the best date for singing at the nursing home last year. If you all can get together and do that again I will appreciate it. You still need to be listening for announcements on the youth devotional.

High Chair: It would be great if we could have one or two high-chairs donated for the fellowship hall. When you have a little one they really come in handy when you use the room back there.

In Need of Prayer: Wasn't it good to see Philip Pitcock back at Bible Study Wednesday. Philip tells me he feels better in the evenings. Laura Key has been in the hospital at Celina. Maxie Harlan has started his treatments and has 3 more to go. Be listening this morning for updates and further announcements.

"Secret" Sisters: A big "thank you" to all the ladies who came to the end-of-the-year meeting at the McHenry's and a note that today you can briefly meet at the back of the auditorium after services to get your new forms for 2010.

Salvation is not by anything "alone": "Only God can save us," people say. This is true. But that doesn't mean that our salvation is BY one thing to the exclusion of all others. God can do it anyway he wants, and He said in his word he does it BY FAITH (Ephesians 2:8), and it is a living faith at that (James 2).
