

Tidings From Timothy

New Birth! Wouldn't it be cool to go back and do things all over again? Fix everything. Do things right this time around. Well, God gives you that chance spiritually. It starts with your new birth in Christ. It can happen today if you are willing.

Elders and Deacons Meeting: Tonight at 5pm here at the building.

Secret Sisters: There will be a short meeting after church this morning of those who have been involved in the gift exchanges this past year. They plan to have their end of the year gathering after Wednesday bible study. Also, anyone interested in participating in 2013 is welcome to come Wednesday.

In Need of Prayer: IC Short has been in the local hospital for some time now. Others are awaiting results or are about to have medical tests done shortly. If you can make a visit, send a card, or just need to focus your thoughts for prayer, then remember that the prayer list is out front and on www.mtgileadchurch.net

Change in Service Time: Next Sunday night, which is our third Sunday singing night, we will be meeting at 5pm instead of 6pm. Please remember and we will continue to announce it.

UpComing Events: We have some big holiday events coming up this month:

December 13 – This Thursday we will meet at to start singing at 6:45 at the nursing home. We will probably sing some spiritual songs and finish up with some caroling.

December 16 – Youth Devotional at Clements after Sunday night Singing. Any monetary help on the food you would like to provide can be given to me or Jarad. Boys bring drinks or chips, girls sweets.

December 23 – Ornament Exchange after evening service.

Many Thanks to all our teachers for their hard work!

Trembling Before God

The most profound reverence characterized the ancient copyists of the Scriptures. It is said that when they came to a name of Deity, they would put new pens into their writing instruments, took a bath, and changed raiment. What a far cry that is from our present day irreverence for things sacred.

It is amazing to me how supercilious characters will approach GOD and His word with such contempt and barefaced irreverence in our generation. We chuckle at the commercial word: "When E.F. Hutton speaks, people listen." But in a far more serious vein, "Is the world interested in pausing to hear God" JEHOVAH has spoken... through the Holy Bible. The thundering words of the Hebrew writer proclaimed: "God, who at sundry times and in divers manners spake in time past unto the fathers by the prophets, hath in these last days spoken unto us by His Son" (Heb. 1:1,2). God has indeed spoken, but man has ceased to tremble.

FELIX, the governor of ancient Judea, was by no means a virtuous man. Legend has it that he, with the help of a magician called ATOMOS, seduced DRUSILLA away from her husband and persuaded her to marry him. Certainly his morals were not exemplary. Yet when PAUL had the occasion to speak in his presence, an interesting reaction developed. "And as he reasoned of righteousness, temperance, and judgment to come, Felix trembled, and answered, Go thy way for this time; when I have a convenient season, I will call for thee" (Acts 24:25)

Oh for a time, when men would again tremble at a reading of GOD'S Word...when hearts would be cut and sins laid bare before His auspicious eyes. In a generation when the heart of man has "waxed gross," may we continue to point men to the Governor of all life and humbly bow before His rule. --Kerry Knight

Verses for the Lord's Supper: John 17:20
- 23 ²⁰"I do not pray for these alone, but also for those who will believe in Me through their word; ²¹that they all may be one, as You, Father, are in Me, and I in You; that they also may be one in Us, that the world may believe that You sent Me. ²²And the glory which You gave Me I have given them, that they may be one just as We are one: ²³I in them, and You in Me; that they may be made perfect in one, and that the world may know that You have sent Me, and have loved them as You have loved Me.
