

Such As I Have. This is the title for the lesson this morning, we have many talents given by God. How you use them is a key part of our judgment on the last day. Tonight we have our 3rd Sunday singing and ornament exchange after fellowship.

Youth Devotional: Thanks for those who came out and all the goodies. We got a lot of donations that helps with the expense and a special thanks to the Clements for hosting the event.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: Your prayers are requested for our next door neighbor's brother, Arnold Asberry. He has pneumonia following a fall and is in Celina hospital. Jimmy Carter's daughter is in very poor condition in Kosair's hospital. Lavonne Welch got to come back to the local hospital for therapy and is doing much better. Shirley Eversole is to have surgery on her neck on the 24th at Greenview.

Special Request: I have a couple of families that we would like to help this holiday season. To that end, I need some things from the grocer to supplement the good pantry items you all have donated recently. A few dollars ought to do it.

The Real Meaning of Peace

There once was a king who offered a prize to the artist who would paint the best picture of peace. Many artists tried. The king looked at all the pictures. But there were only two he really liked, and he had to choose between them.

One picture was of a calm lake. The lake was a perfect mirror for peaceful towering mountains all around it. The other picture had mountains, too. But these were rugged and bare. Above was an angry, raining, thundering sky. This did not look peaceful at all.

But when the king looked closely, he saw behind the waterfall a tiny bush growing in a crack in the rock. In the bush a mother bird had built her nest. There, in the midst of the rush of angry water, sat the mother bird on her nest—in perfect peace.

Which picture do you think won the prize? The king chose the second picture. Do you know why? "Because," explained the king, "peace does not mean to be in a place where there is no noise, trouble, or hard work. Peace means to be in the midst of all those things and still be calm in your heart. That is the real meaning of peace."
