Twas Two Hours Before Worship

Twas two hours before worship,
And all through the house
Not a creature was stirring,
Not even a spouse.
The children were nestled all snug in their beds,
No visions of heaven danced in their heads,
Ma, in her curlers, and I, what a sap!
Had just settled down, "Dick Tracy" in lap.
When out on the lawn there rose such a clatter,
I sprang from the chair to see what was the matter.
When what to my wondering eyes should appear,
My neighbor's lawn mower, and it in high gear;
I thought to myself and just had to say,
"Just a fool would save this for the Lord's Day."
I nodded my head and was turning 'round,
I looked in the mirror, and saw with a frown;
A little round mouth drawn up in a bow,
Stubbornness, conceit, that I only should know.
I haven't been to worship since...what was the day?
The morn before mama went on her good way.
I'm part of the church, have a spouse that would go,
And we could have souls, as white as the snow.
I woke up my mate and said, "How about you?"
She smiled and said sweetly, "Bible study, too?"
We spoke not a word but went right to work
Dressed up all the kids and they were so pert.
They heard us exclaim as we drove out of sight,

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.
