

Tidings From Timothy

Today we study on a STANDARD. If you don't have one, then just any thing will do, but if you do have one, then you better go by it. We will see if the Lord has one this morning.

Sweetheart Fellowship: Next Sunday night is the time for this. Who will wear the crown this year? Come the 17th and find out! There will be youth activities during the oldywed game downstairs. We may need some of the older youth to help on the these activities with the little ones.

Jail Service: This is today, pray that they have a desire to change their lives.

Monroe County Singing: Tell others that like to sing we will be meeting here at Mt. Gilead next week at 2pm. I know we have our own singing that night, but do the best you can to come since the crowds for this are rather slim sometimes. The good thing is that you can sing some new and interesting songs or try one you don't usually get people to sing.

Mission Report: A financial report on brother Honeycutt's mission work is posted on the little bulletin board in the side hall.

Bible Bowl team formation: We need to start getting teams formed for the Bible bowl. They need to be teams of 4 and they have classes for little ones who want to come as well. This will be at the Westside church of Christ in Livingston on March 2. Teachers in our Sunday School and Wednesday classes can help get me names of any interested in going please.

In Need of Prayer: Garmon Rhoten is in the local hospital. We are saddened at the passing of Nina Eva Gisinger, sister to Bernetta Proffitt. That funeral was yesterday.

Dishes: There are a lot of dishes in the back that have been left for pick-up. They are from the Harrison funeral. All the food groups have been doing great.

Deep Thought: The main thing is to keep the main thing the main thing.

No one asked me to say this, but I can't help but notice that if everyone stuffed their couches with all the junk they put in pews then it wouldn't take long for their couches to be too nasty to rest on. Let's take pride in the house set aside to worship God and I'll try to do the same.
