This week's article is the last of a 4-part series on worshipping with heart by Farrell Nicholson who preaches for the Agnos church of Christ in Agnos, AR.

WORSHIPPING WITH HEART

Isaac Watt, "The Father of English Hymnody," was, like his father, a Nonconformist. His "We're Marching to Zion" is a salvo against the cold formalism of the Established Church. In a verse absent from most song books, Watts' pen screams, The sorrow of the mind

Be banished from the place;
 Religion never was designed
 Religion never was designed;
 To make our pleasures less
 To make our pleasures less."

It is in worship according to truth and in a fervent spirit that men, women, and children become that which the Father above is seeking to worship Him. It is by Jesus that we "offer the sacrifice of praise to God continually, that is, the fruit of our lips giving thanks unto His name: (Heb. 13:15). Attitude is equally as important as truth (Jn. 4:23-24); let us love and worship the God of heaven with all of our heart (Matt. 22:37) with joy.
