

Tidings From Timothy

Shis was a very bitter week for us on this side of Heaven. See the prayer list below and remember each one and remember to do something for them or their families as you can.

I am reminded that we all need think of how precious life is and how short it is. We should all know what God expects us to do to prepare for Judgement. Along those lines, this morning we will be looking at the subject of "For what will a person be judged?" I think you will find it an interesting study.

Graduation! Help us celebrate with our graduates tonight after Singing service. We will have finger foods and ice cream, lots and lots of ice cream – tonight. If you would like to bring a card to a little something to a graduate tonight then that would be nice and you can see the list of them out front.

In Need of Prayer: We are thankful that John Biggerstaff's foot is doing better. Marleta Sweezy came through her surgery well and it was not as extensive as the doctors feared it would have to be. Please pray for the Stoops family. Words cannot express the immense hole in our hearts or the sadness we feel about Frances' passing. It will be hard for us to "fill her shoes" when it comes to all the good that Sis. Stoops did. Her works do follow her. We are also saddened at the passing of Jim Robinson, brother to Dan. He was a native of Texas I think and the Robinsons have been down there for several days now. Also, we are sad to say that Suetta Adams has gotten word that her cancer has come back. She must have several more treatments.

Brenda Harlan will be having cataract surgery the 24th. Gene Goode will be having a pacemaker implanted on 24th at St. Thomas. Get the other names and all the latest on people to pray for at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

Loved

When Scottish teenager George Matheson learned he was losing his eyesight, he determined to finish his studies at the University of Glasgow as quickly as possible. His blindness overtook him while he pursued graduate studies for Christian ministry, but his family rallied to his side. His sisters even learned Greek and Hebrew to help him in his assignments.

The real blow came later, when his fiancée determined she just couldn't marry a blind man. Breaking the engagement, she returned his ring. George was devastated. Years later when he was a beloved pastor in Scotland, his sister became engaged, and the news opened old wounds in his heart. More mature now, he turned to God and out of the experience wrote a prayer that later became a much-loved hymn. The words say:

*O love that wilt not let me go,
I rest my weary soul in thee:
I give thee back the life I owe,
That in thine ocean depths its flow
May richer, fuller be.*

Have you been disappointed recently? God's love will never let you go, and in its continuous, compassionate, costly flow, your life will richer, fuller, be.
David Jeremiah
