o we have a choice? By that I mean, in religion. You see, once you have made your mind up about God, your choices have really been made for you. The Christian religion is not some convoluted process that you need a flowchart to follow. Rather, once you have given your heart over to finding God, you will be invariably drawn to New Testament Christianity every time.

In Need of Prayer: Connie Carter is recovering at her sister's in Louisville after he latest procedure, she is to have another (eye surgery) this week. We are saddened at the passing of Lena Gillenwater and Samantha Ellis. Please pray for these families. Samantha's funeral is today at 2pm. Some are awaiting tests and others are still travelling this summer. Our complete prayer list is at www.mtgileadchurch.net!

Back to School BASH: This will be at the Clements on August 8th. If you can help with some money for the youth fund, see Jarad.

Fifth Sunday: Remember next Sunday is a fifth Sunday. Every fifth Sunday we use everything above our average contribution for extra benevolence. Any extra you give will have a big impact on the ones we help. Consider giving an additional amount..

STORMS OF LIFE

At some point in life most of us face many types of health, financial, family or other serious problem. Recently, it seems that "storm clouds" have encircled many due to lost jobs, poor health and the economic situation in our country. It would be quite easy to begin counting our problems instead of our blessings.

Life is precious. It was given each of us by God. He understands that we face difficulties in this short sojourn on earth. Yet, trials and sufferings are a part of life itself, brought on by the sin in the world since Adam and Eve.

Tragedies may come, jobs may be lost, diseases may rack our bodies, or business losses may cause financial disasters. There may be times when we feel we are all alone and overcome by life's difficulties. God did not promise to take away our troubles. But, He did promise that the Lord would never leave nor forsake us (Hebrews 13:5). When trials surround us, He offers comfort and hope through His Word (Romans 15:4). He gives us peace through Christ (John 16:4; Philippians 4:7). If we are in Christ then nothing can separate us from God's love (Romans 8:35-39).

When the storms of life comes our way, let us call to mind the words of the apostle Peter, "casting all your care upon Him; for He careth for you" (1 Peter 5:7).
