

Tidings From Timothy

Welcome to our Gospel Meeting. Give brother Chad Ramsey and family a warm welcome and make sure to stay afterward with us for a fellowship meal. We would like our visitors to sign the registry out front so we can have a record of your visit. Come back each night to be a part of this Meeting!

Advertisements: It isn't too late to invite people to come, there are still flyers out front on the desk. You all have done great on advertising and we have distributed hundreds of advertisements. Let's keep going onward and upward in this good work.

In Need of Prayer: Condolences to the family of Ben Bartley, father of Dawn Emberton. My twin nephews, Drew and Seth McHenry are both home now and getting stronger. Lorraine Smith is very weak at the nursing home. They are considering surgery for Lavone Welch on her neck later this month. Pat Murray is in Kentuckiana Hospital just inside Indiana. Sympathy is extended to the family of Cordell McClerran, who was a brother in Christ at the New Hope congregation in Clay, Co. He was brother to Willie McClerran. Also pray for the family of Gladys Hood. She went to church with us at the nursing home and has family that goes to church at Berea.

Pantry Item: More "no sugar added" fruit

Mark Your Calendars: Ladies Day – April 25th beginning at 11:30pm, advertisements will be out this week!

Someone has said, "Smile and the world smiles with you..." What this tells us is what we hand out we get back. It is the old sowing and reaping principle.

In the years I have been preaching, I have seen some sour faces that would cause a green apple to blush. I have seen those in the church of the Living God that looked like they were weaned on green persimmon juice. They must look like the Pharisees did when they were fasting (Matt. 6:16).

Can these people laugh? Oh, yes, they can laugh; for I have seen them do so. They are as fine as can be with certain people and in certain places. Well, what causes them to be so sour at church? I don't know that I can answer this question. Maybe they do not like to be at church. Maybe they do not like the preacher. Maybe they do not agree with the teaching done, even though it is solid Bible teaching. Maybe they have a guilty conscience and being at church makes them feel uncomfortable. Maybe they just want to look that way. We may not know the reason, but we do know they are sour!

Christians should be the happiest people in the world. They should have a lovely smile for everyone. A smile is just as holy as crying. Folks that are sour do a lot of damage to the Lord's church and to His Cause. It is hard to build a church on sour saints. Most of the time sour saints are fault-finders of the worst sort. Of course, the sour saint is above reproach in his own sight, but he can see a gnat in the back of an ant a mile away. The reason he can see this type of thing is because he wants to see it! Does he get a joy out of being sour? I suppose so. Maybe not so much joy; just some satisfaction.

Let me encourage each member of this congregation to be happy. Give us a great big smile when we see you. Brighten the corner where you are. Declare the sunshine that is in your soul each day by rejoicing.

The world is looking for happy people. My prayer is that when they visit us they will find such people. Remember the elder brother was condemned because he was a sour saint (Lk. 15:25-32).

Remember tonight's service at 7pm instead of 6!

What must I do?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

1 Corinthians 11:23 - 29 ²³For I received from the Lord that which I also delivered to you: that the Lord Jesus on the same night in which He was betrayed took bread; ²⁴and when He had given thanks, He broke it and said, “Take, eat; this is My body which is broken for you; do this in remembrance of Me.” ²⁵In the same manner He also took the cup after supper, saying, “This cup is the new covenant in My blood. This do, as often as you drink it, in remembrance of Me.” ²⁶For as often as you eat this bread and drink this cup, you proclaim the Lord’s death till He comes. ²⁷Therefore whoever eats this bread or drinks this cup of the Lord in an unworthy manner will be guilty of the body and blood of the Lord. ²⁸But let a man examine himself, and so let him eat of the bread and drink of the cup. ²⁹For he who eats and drinks in an unworthy manner eats and drinks judgment to himself, not discerning the Lord’s body
