

Tidings From Timothy

There is an important sermon coming up tonight on the family. I hope you all can come back and be with us for that. This morning I will be studying on the subject, "I Believe All." I think it is good to revisit some basic things that we sometimes overlook about the faith based religion we have.

KY Soul-Hunters take home the Silver: There were many teams at West End church of Christ in Livingston Saturday, and we were rank novices at this Bible Bowl thing. However, that didn't stop our Kentucky Soul-Hunter teams from doing a great job. A big THANK YOU! goes out to all those who participated in the High School and the 4-6 grade team. 4-6 took second place in their age category in our very first year participating. Also, Natasha Warren was especially recognized on the 7-12 squad for scoring 94 out of 100 Questions in the Bible Bowl. We are proud of Tyler, Hannah, Evan, Luke, Natalie, Chandra, Natalie, Lauren, and all those who helped.

Potter Commodities: We are getting several good items in, a little more Kix cereal and we can send it off to the home.

In Need of Prayer:

Zella King passed on and was buried yesterday. Thanks go out to all those who helped sing and those who provided food. Prayers of sympathy also go out to the family of Evans Dale Bartley, nephew to Vivian Gerald's. His funeral was Friday.
