

Tidings From Timothy

Welcome to all our visitors this morning. We hope that you experience an edifying worship and leave here today being able to say, "It was good for us to go the house of the Lord." I want to challenge all our members to speak and be friendly to everyone you see.

This morning's sermon is titled, "I Obey All." Copies of the outline are available on the desk out front.

Potter Home items: We have let this sneak up on us. The items due are listed over the desk.

Singing School: We will have a series of classes here on Song Leading on Saturdays beginning April 10th from 8-10am. This is your chance to learn how to sing it better!

In Need of Prayer: They are trying to get Pat Murray transferred over to Bowling Green to be treated for her condition there. Glendale Hickey, Connie McHenry's grandfather, has bladder cancer and is to have surgery tomorrow. Ramsey Kate Bartley has had her eye procedure delayed, possibly until April 30th. I got to visit my twin nephews, Drew and Seth McHenry, this past week. They are looking good. Each is now about 6lbs and they take ~3oz of milk at a time. We appreciate all your prayers.

Pantry Item: Somehow we have gotten low on Macaroni and cheese. Thanks for your recent donations.

Mark Your Calendars: Ladies Day – April 25th beginning at 11:30pm, there is a sign-up sheet out at the front desk. There are some advertisements out front as well. From what I'm hearing from ladies outside the Mt. Gilead congregation, you had better get ready for a crowd.

1 Corinthians 15:1-4 ¹Moreover, brethren, I declare to you the gospel which I preached to you, which also you received and in which you stand, ²by which also you are saved, if you hold fast that word which I preached to you—unless you believed in vain. ³For I delivered to you first of all that which I also received: that Christ died for our sins according to the Scriptures, ⁴and that He was buried, and that He rose again the third day according to the Scriptures,
