

Sunday Sermon Topics: Sunday morning I have planned a real basic gospel sermon. In fact, it's about as basic as you can get, I believe we need that sometimes. Last Sunday I missed my 5th Sunday time to do a specialized sermon (usually "Worship in Song," "Questions and Answers," or "Lord's Supper Reflections"). Therefore, I will do a sermon on Lord's Supper Reflections as a PowerPoint Sermon

Youth Event: We are planning a youth event for the 13th. Wear work clothes that you don't mind getting dirty and plan on it taking 2-3 hours Saturday morning. People will meet here at the building at a time to be announced.

Gospel Meetings: Extra advertisements are out front and we need all the food groups to make sure they have the week planned out. I know brother Pippin is getting keyed up to do a great job. Don't forget that Wednesday night will be youth night. Try to get as many young people here as possible on the 17th.

Jason Page is holding a meeting at Dry Fork today through Thursday.

In Need of Prayer: Remember the Nell Gerald's family. Her funeral was this past week. Mary Dotson is in the nursing home., Betty McHenry is beginning a new round of chemotherapy for her cancer which has returned.

New Testament Christianity

Since my earliest days of being a Christian, I have been thrilled with New Testament Christianity. Going back to the Bible for the rule of faith and practice is truly the ancient path.

When the priests found the book of the Law in the temple in Josiah's day (2 Kings 22), they read it before the king. When he heard the words Moses wrote by inspiration, he became humbly penitent and tore his clothes in anguish. Josiah knew that Judah was not keeping God's commandments.

Josiah began a campaign of repentance by destroying the idolatrous, by removing what was sinful, and by restoring the righteous practices in God's Law (2 Kings 23). His example of faithfulness to God ought to remind us of our need to remove what is sinful and to restore what is righteous. This is repentance, and it is what the restoration principle is all about.

When we turn to the New Testament and examine everything we are doing today carefully according to its teachings, we imitate Josiah and please God. New Testament Christianity reaches to the Scriptures of the new covenant ratified by the blood of Jesus for its rule of faith and practice. Whatever is instructed in the New Testament, a faithful Christian seeks to do; and whatever is not ordained there, he removes.

Our task today is to "examine everything carefully; hold fast to that which is good; and abstain from every form of evil" (1 Thessalonians 5:21

Verses for the Lord's

Supper:

³ He is despised and rejected of men; a man of sorrows, and acquainted with grief: and we hid as it were our faces from him; He was despised, and we esteemed Him not.

⁴ Surely He hath borne our griefs, and carried our sorrows: yet we did esteem Him stricken, smitten of God, and afflicted.

⁵ But He was wounded for our transgressions, He was bruised for our iniquities: the chastisement of our peace was upon Him; and with His stripes we are healed. Isaiah 53:3-5
