

Tidings From Timothy

I Want to go ahead and thank Steve Hagan for preaching for me this morning. I am at a Meeting with the Rock Springs Congregation in Clay County. This meeting goes through Wednesday night with Evening Services starting at 6:30 singing and children's class and then 7pm worship. Sunday night service for Rock Springs is at 5pm.

Tonight at Mt. Gilead you all will be singing but there will be no fellowship meal afterward.

Potter Home items: We were given a 2 week extension on collecting these items. Last time we collected about $200 worth of stuff. In a congregation this size that's not hard to do. I think we can beat it this year. The items wanted are: Canned Chicken, Jiffy Corn Bread Mix, 9volt batteries, Magic Eraser Sponges, Bean Soup

Singing School: I think we all learned a lot in this last session. Next meeting is Saturday at 8am.

In Need of Prayer: Rick Bartley has been in a slow recovery after his accident. Connie's grandfather, Glendale Hickey, is considering Chemo to treat his condition. Pat Murray is in the local nursing home. Ramsey Kate Bartley is still waiting on her eye procedure scheduled for the 30th. Kate Carter is recovering well the last I heard.

Mark Your Calendars: Ladies Day – April 25th beginning at 11:30AM, there is a sign-up sheet out at the front desk. There are some advertisements out front as well.

“Then said one unto Him, Lord, are there few that be saved?” (Luke 13:23).

The atheists for centuries gone by have said that no one will be saved.

We are no better than the four-legged animals which inhabit the earth. We are all bound for the grave and the dissolving of our bodies into the earth. They allow for nothing beyond death other than destruction.

The universalists say, “Everyone.” God is so good and so compassionate that the deavely abode will be inhabited by every man, woman, boy, or girl who has ever lived on this earth.

Man has as many answers to this question as there are religious doctrines on the face of the earth, but how did the Lord answer this question? That is what matters!

“Strive to enter in at the strait gate: for many, I say unto you, will seek to enter in, and shall not be able.” (Luke 13:24). But, how many, Lord, how many? Jesus goes a little further in Matthew 7:14 in His famous Sermon on the Mount. Hear the blessed Savior, “Because strait is the gate, and narrow is the way, which leadeth unto life, and few there be that find it.” But, how many, Lord, how many?

We could consider what the Lord means by a few! In the days of the flood only eight souls made preparation against the 40-day deluge and only eight souls were saved by water, “the like figure whereunto even baptism doth also now save us” (1 Peter 3:21). Or, we could consider the entering of the children of Israel into a type of heaven, Canaan land of the book of Joshua. Only two out of all the thousands who left Egypt, of those twenty years old and upward, made it into the land flowing with milk and honey.

Jesus taught, “Enter ye in at the strait gate: for wide is the gate, and broad is the way, that leadeth to destruction, and many there be which go in thereat.” (Matthew 7:13)--Fred Dillon—

What must I do?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

2 Corinthians 5:14 - 19 <sup>14</sup>For the love of Christ compels us, because we judge thus: that if One died for all, then all died; <sup>15</sup>and He died for all, that those who live should live no longer for themselves, but for Him who died for them and rose again. <sup>16</sup>Therefore, from now on, we regard no one according to the flesh. Even though we have known Christ according to the flesh, yet now we know Him thus no longer. <sup>17</sup>Therefore, if anyone is in Christ, he is a new creation; old things have passed away; behold, all things have become new. <sup>18</sup>Now all things are of God, who has reconciled us to Himself through Jesus Christ, and has given us the ministry of reconciliation, <sup>19</sup>that is, that God was in Christ reconciling the world to Himself, not imputing their trespasses to them, and has committed to us the word of reconciliation.
