

Tidings From Timothy

Local evangelism: A bitter-sweet month was March. It holds all the promise of spring, and yet we experienced such loss. Three funerals were held this past month – for Irene Dyer, Michael Bartley, and Melba Hagan. May each one of their families find peace and strength in the days to come.

March also saw the weather finally break. I am excited about getting out and among people as the time changes. The first order of business is to get ready for our Gospel Meeting. An article about the meeting is in this bulletin, and there are flyers on the desk in the foyer. Let's get ready for our best meeting yet!

In March, I had about 20 visits. We have 4 active Bible Correspondence Courses, and Lisa Warren responded for prayer. I look forward to many more good things happening in April.

In Need of Prayer

A Good Meeting

If there were ever a time when you could demonstrate your interest in things spiritual, that time is during a Gospel Meeting. All things have been provided for you, the word of God, a speaker, a nice building in which to meet, and the open invitation to attend each night. All you have to do is come and participate, and that participation simply involves studying God's word and worshipping Him in spirit and in truth. Starting April 9, we will have just such a meeting. However, the opportunity for service is now. Talk to others about the upcoming meeting, provide free advertisement by putting a flyer in your auto, and last but not least, come. If you can think of any other way to be of assistance, then feel free to ask my help or bring it to the attention of the elders. To members of the church of Christ at Mt. Gilead: consider the fact that there may be friends of yours who go to their own church on Sunday and Wednesday nights. When we have a Gospel Meeting, it is the time that we have set aside for inviting those in the community and in our sister congregations to come be with us to better learn how to serve God. If by your influence just one visitor came through the door for the meeting, and if each member had just one other visitor that came because of their invitation, then we would have new faces all around us during the Meeting. This is a goal worth striving for. Brother Honeycutt has chosen his lessons, people are praying, all that is now needed is for you to come. See you then!

What Must I do to be saved?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.
