

Tidings From Timothy

Responses: to the gospel of our Lord seem to be happening weekly now and for that we give thanks to God for His mercy, and for His many opportunities to serve Him in Christ. Kelsey Turner was baptized into Christ Thursday night. The Lord just keeps blessing and we hope and pray he continues to do so.

Thanks: Steve Hagan will be preaching for me this morning and Bobby Harlan will have the Nursing Home service. Thanks go out to them and the young people for the service tonight as I will be away at a Gospel Meeting with Rock Springs church of Christ in Clay Co. This meeting will go through Wednesday with services tonight at 5pm and Monday through Wednesday at 6:30pm (singing) & 7pm services.

Visitors: You honor us by your presense. Please sign the register out front and come back to see us again.

Practice makes perfect: the ladies who will be working with Ladies Day will be practicing Wednesday night to get ready.

In Need of Prayer: Brother Froedge's sugery has gone well and he should be back at home soon. Ruby Ford is in the nursing home and was doing some better. Ruby Howard continues to have therapy at Greenwood Rehab (formerly Brithaven) in Bowling Green. IC Short may be home by the time you are reading this. Keith Dyer is still fighting the shingles. We request prayer for James and Janice McClerran. James is Willie McClerran's son. Their house in New Hope community (Clay Co.) burned and they were not able to same much at all. We will try to find out what we can do to help the most. They are members at New Hope.

Church Wi-fi: You should now see greatly improved connection for accessing the webpage and getting the lessons. We ask all in the congregation to please keep their children on task and monitor their activity with the local internet connection.
