

Tidings From Timothy

I have been doing a series on Fellowship on Sunday evenings, so I have been unable to do one of my special lessons on singing or Questions and Answers. Therefore, this morning I will mix things up a bit and answer several religious questions that I have been asked over the radio and TV through the years.

Camps: Truth Bible Camp begins this week and goes through Wednesday. Therefore, I will be away this Wednesday night and Calvin Shaw will bring the lesson in my absence.

John's Seed Sower Day Camp at Old Mulkey will be June 20-24 this year. If your child wants to go, then there is no cost but if you want details you can get an application here at Mt. Gilead or ask Kathleen Evans for more information at Tompkinsville church of Christ.

Items Needed: I need some things for the upcoming camp at Tennessee Bible College and I had rather not have to go buy them, but will if I have to. I need some good quality toiler paper, a couple of matching pairs of squirt-guns, Frisbees, duct-tape, water balloons, and candy prizes. I need them by tonight ☺, thanks.

In Need Of Prayer: You prayers are requested for the family of Nora Dell Slaughter Thompson whose funeral was this past week. Tyler McHenry is still not diagnosed and is having good days and bad with his condition. Please keep Dixie Carter in your prayers. Shirley Eversole is back in the hospital in Indiana. She has been very sick of late and needs your prayers. Teresa Netherton is hopefully out of the hospital by the time you read this. Olen McPherson has been very ill in the hospital. Remember those who are still trying to recover from recent illness and check the prayer list out front.

The image of GOD bursts forth from the dark interior of the mother's womb. He greets life, robed in unexcellable loveliness. Each day is kissed by the spirit of spring as the wonders of babyhood permeates the home. "There is a time to be born."Ecc. 3:2

The days take wing as crawling becomes walking and the days of infancy are reserved for albums and memories. A child becomes a boy, a girl, embracing youth as though it will last forever. Shaving, high heels, dating, graduation, courtship and marriage; the cycle of life which commenced in Eden continues on its unaltered course.

With immeasurable swiftness, the carefree days of youth give way to the weighty responsibilities of adulthood. A child becomes a man with a child of his own. A day now seems like an hour with each passing year. The mirror reveals a touch of gray, a furrow in the brow, a loss of tightness in the skin. The years of parenthood appear long, yet short with a backward look. Grandchildren and retirement, once a dream, now a reality.

The sun of life is now setting. Time among man grows short. Youth is only a memory. Reflecting on the nature of life from Adam onward, aged Joshua declared, "I am going the way of all the earth." (Joshua 23:14) So must all men. Every man has his time with life, his time with death. "There is a time to die." (Ecc. 3:2)

As the curtain descends, what can be said for your time with life? In the process of making a living, have you neglected to make a life? To what can you point as justification for your passing moment on earth?

Is the sum and substance of your life's work a handful of material things? Has GOD been a stranger or a companion? When life bows to death and time gives way to eternity, will you be able to say, "It is well with my soul?" --Frank Chesser--, Edited

Truth crushed to earth shall rise again,
The eternal years of God are hers;
But Error, wounded, writhes in pain,
And dies among her worshippers.

--Bryant, The Battle Field

Isaiah 53:7-8 ⁷He was oppressed, and he was afflicted, yet he opened not his mouth: he is brought as a lamb to the slaughter, and as a sheep before her shearers is dumb, so he openeth not his mouth. ⁸He was taken from prison and from judgment: and who shall declare his generation? for he was cut off out of the land of the living: for the transgression of my people was he stricken.
