

Tidings From Timothy

Sunday night I would like to start a “Pew Packer” class for our children up to grade 6. This class will have VBS type songs, Bible drills, and special assignments for the children. They may even get a treat from time to time ☺. This class will start at about 5:45pm. Also Sunday, come by and see us at 2pm for the Nursing Home service.

Remember that page one has a verse on it to go with the sermon on page 3. The sermon you see on page 3 is for Sunday morning. The Sunday evening services will be conducted by our youth. Please encourage them in this spiritual work. It is preparing them for a life of Christian service and instructing us by their good lessons and example.

If you have any suggestions for a VBS for this year, then please let those be known to the Elders, Deacons, and myself.

LOVE, HATE, AND THE MOUTH

Introduction

- a. Proverbs 13:3 He who guards his mouth preserves his life, But he who opens wide his lips shall have destruction.
- b. Many people are unable to live a good life because they have a bad relationship with someone else in their family, at work, etc. These things keep us from having a good relationship with God. Many, if not most, of these conflicts start with poorly chosen words.

Body

- c. Words, as well as actions, help our relationships. Each person in America is so independent, that we don't realize other people need us. We talk to them about us and use the word “I” a lot.
- d. It is important that we speak well to draw others toward Jesus.
- e. People deserve love, truth, and attention when we take up their time by speaking to them.
- f. People are more discerning and more important, it matters what we say to them – Matthew 12:37
- g. The problem: speaking against
- h. The underlying problem: wrongly directed anger
- i. Anger is usually described as a bad thing:
- j. However, Love for God demands hate:

Conclusion

- k. Matthew 12:36

Will your words be good words of confession and praise, or will they meet you at judgment?
