

Tidings From Timothy

THis morning's lesson is on the body and the abuse or use thereof. It will be primarily on Drug abuse, but we will branch out and make it more general than that.

VBS!: If you need anything ordered or bought for your class, then now is the time to say so before it is too late for it to be ordered. We have advertisements out front for you to distribute.

A special thanks goes to Bobby and Charlene Geraldts for helping to get the banner advertisements up and to Roger Deckard and Larry Copas for supplying the equipment.

I think we have one more class that needs a teacher, and maybe some classes that need helpers. Look over the desk out front.

In Need Of Prayer: Morris Scott is still in the hospital at UT in Knoxville. He is having trouble with his lungs and things like infection, fever, etc. He is just generally very banged up. His address there is: UT Medical Center
1924 Alcoa HWY SC/ICU
Knoxville, TN 37920

Kenneth Bartley has been in the local hospital. He has an infection. Jean McPherson had a procedure done on her pacemaker. It should now be good for 10 years!

Congratulations!: There's a new baby I forgot to announce last week: Matthew Clay Estes born July 5th being 8lbs 2oz and 22in long! Baby and mother are doing well and you can get updated photos Kathy or off of Facebook.

Pantry: Meaty soups and stews are still needed.

Bulletins: Bulletins can now be gotten from the new holders for them out front and in the side hall. Thanks!

Tonight and Tomorrow: Tonight there is a elder and deacon meeting at 5pm here at the building. Singing is a 6pm with fellowship to follow. Monday night will be a big night for the Men's Meeting. Brother Ratnam from India will be with us at 6pm to give an update about the mission work. He was booked up and unable to make the services here, but men, this is your chance to see what your contribution is going toward and be edified by the spread of the gospel across the world.

The Third Epistle Of Paul To Timothy?

Paul, an apostle of Jesus Christ, to Timothy, Associate Youth Minister of the church in Ephesus.

I besought thee to abide still at Ephesus, when I went to the Macedonian workshop, that thou mightest share thy dynamic motivational personality with the keen teens. I exhort therefore, that, first of all, candle-light devos be held for all cell groups. Meditate upon new schemes to keep them stirred up and on fire, give thyself wholly to them, lest the aged men and women teach them to be soberminded.

But watch thou in all things. Do the work of a recreation director, plan a social calendar, entertain at hootenannies, chauffeur to amusement parks, referee ball games, make full proof of thy ministry. For bodily exercise produceth firm believers. These things write I unto thee, hoping to come unto thee shortly: but if I tarry long, that thou mayest know how thou oughtest to behave thyself in the fieldhouse of God, which is the gymnasium of the church, the backboard and track of progress.

Let no man despise thy youth rallies: but be thou an example of the latest fad, in hugs, in applause, in altar calls, in neocharismatic spirituality, in cliches. Do thy diligence to schedule Hymenaeus and Philetus for next year.

Study to show thyself an intellectual. But progress beyond the things which thou hast learned and hast been assured of, knowing the rigid traditionalists from whom thou hast learned them. Let the elders that rule be told they have no authority, especially over you.

I charge thee therefore before God, and the Lord Jesus Christ, preach self-image psychology: relate, placate, and motivate with all values clarification and counseling. Use vague speech that cannot be pinned down; that he that is of the contrary part may look foolish, having no charges that you cannot later deny. These things suggest and present as all personal options so that anyone who disagrees may be ignored.

Hold back the faithful word, which you were taught, that you may be able by new doctrines both to find and fill felt needs. For there are many dynamic speakers and misunderstood thinkers, especially they of the circumcision, whose mouths must be given a wider hearing. A man that is a heretic to older brethren, after the first and second brotherhood backlash, take a caravan of children a hundred miles to hear. Lay hands suddenly on anyone who seems visibly successful: keep thyself popular. (cont. on page 4)

O Timothy, keep that which unknowing parents have committed to thy trust, avoiding doctrinal issues and oppositions of knuckleheads, so-called.

--Steve Gibson

LOL, sounds just like some the liberals among the brethren – STM.

What must I do?

- Hear the Gospel - Acts 15:7
- Believe the Gospel - Mark 16:15,16 (cont. on p.4)
- Repent of Sins - Acts 17:30
- Confess Christ - Rom. 10:9,10
- Be Baptized for the Forgiveness of Sins - Acts 2:38

Then, as a Christian we must:

- LIVE FAITHFUL UNTO DEATH - REV. 2:10
