Tidings From Timothy: Welcome Paul Wilmoth this morning. Paul is no stranger to you all here at Mt. Gilead and I'm sure he will present the gospel in its power and plainness.

Tonight, the Swayne's will be here from the Singapore work. Patrick is going to be the guest speaker for the Youth night here at Mt. Gilead. Chantelle, his wife, is to speak to the Ladies Bible Class before evening services.

IN NEED OF PRAYER: It was good to see some back with us recently and we thank God for recovery in every way. Gene Goode is still recovering from a problem with his leg. Jason Goode is in the hospital. Sympathy goes out to the Bartley family and relatives in the passing of Mary Kerr. Brenda Harlan is undergoing testing and has been in class for learning about her condition.

Caving Trip: It would be hard with my family gone for us to get all the details hammered out by the 2nd, so it might be good for us to plan on the next weekend. It is about $16 per person and there is walking and steps involved but they take into account those that might need to stop and sit on the benches while others go on. Please give us your feedback on this by calling my cell at 270-427-0520.

Advertisements: Friends and Family Day adverts are out front.

Bible Bowl: I simply must have a topic or Scripture range for this year's Bible Bowl in October. Last year was on Genesis 1-9. I will just pick something, if no one has a suggestion.

Missionaries

What must I do?

The missionaries leave their home
Their family, friends and all,
To travel far across the seas
In answer to God's call.

They learn the language of the land
In order for to go,
And tell the natives of our God
Who cares and loves them so.

The natives in those foreign lands
To idols they all go,
But idols neither hear nor speak
The Bible tells us so.

So the mission of our people here
Is to take the holy word,
Of salvation from a living God
To those who never heard.

And we at home can do our part
As daily we do pray,
For God to keep them free from harm
While they are far away.

But lets not forget our missionaries
That work for God at home,
To show God's love to many
Who feel lost and all alone.

So let us all just do our part
For our missionaries dear,
Whether they be far away
Or whether they be near.

We'll pray for God to guide them
As they teach His word so true,
And support them with our pledges
As His work they gladly do.
