

Tidings From Timothy

Be looking for a local evangelism report next week. For this week, I have an outline of the morning sermon on page 2, and on this page a short encouragement, To Our Visitors:

There are many organizations out there vying for your attention. However, considering the value of the church and what it has to offer, it is truly where you belong. At the Mt. Gilead church of Christ you will find a caring group of Christians that offer a warm welcome and promote a simple message – that salvation is open to all who will obey Jesus! We believe you will find our straightforward worship, class studies, and church activities to be just what you and your family need. You will truly find in the Lord's church a place where you belong

Sick

I've been out the whole week at a Gospel Meeting and then a wedding on Saturday. I hope all our shut-ins and others are getting better. Our deepest sympathies go out to the family of Rose Hagan.
