

Tidings From Timothy

Today is our third Sunday singing this evening. Bring your singing voice tonight and get ready for some good songs. The outline on the right is for this morning's worship.

Friends and Family Day: We still need one or two more slots filled and we will have the whole day of the Watermelon Festival taken care of. Lets "each one bring one" for Friends and Family day and we will do well, if all of US show up that is – so make a special effort and plan to stay with us after church for fellowship that Sunday morning.

In Need Of Prayer: Morris Scott is doing better gradually. He loves visits and many of you have been by to see him. For that he and the family are thankful. Morris is in Room 6A19 of the Medical Center in BG.

Laura Key was let out of the hospital and went Friday to get a port put in for her next round of Chemo.

Jessie Chapman is in the local hospital.

Noel Groce, Wonzie Strode's brother, is to have heart surgery Monday at Medical Center.

Joe Copass is in the Medical Center and is in pretty rough shape.

Lila Holland is in the Medical Center in ICU.

Pamela Williams is in the Medical Center. She lives in Hestand.

Advertisements: There are flyers out at the desk for our Friends and Family Day, get all you want.

Directory Update: We are happy to have Linda Dicken worshipping with us. Her address is: 2439 Meredith Creek Rd.
Hestand, KY 42151

Welcome her to the family!
