

Tidings From Timothy

Friends and Family Day: We appreciate all of you all being with us today. Please take a couple of pens as a gift from the congregation and if you want an updated Birthday and Anniversary list you can get that out at the desk in the front. We are happy to celebrate 154 years of continuous existence and worship at the Mt. Gilead church of Christ. We are honored by your presence and want you to sign the register out front if you haven't already. Also, make sure to stay for our fellowship meal afterward and get (re)acquainted with everybody. Thanks for joining us today!

September County Youth Devo: The Pleasant Hill congregation will need to know a definite number of speakers from our youth group by today. The service will be next week, the 11th. I think it is at 5pm.

Congratulations: To Daniel and Krista Harlan in the birth of Anna Kate born Monday the 29th was 7lbs 13oz and 19in long!

Gospel Meeting: I will be starting a Meeting Labor Day with the Arcott church of Christ in Clay County September 5-9. Singing will start at about 6:30pm each night with services to follow. Just go to Moss and you anyone could tell you how to get there ☺.

In Need Of Prayer: Morris Scott continues to improve and is at SKY rehab.

Laura Key is at Vanderbilt in Nashville.

We are saddened at the death of Ree Biggerstaff. She was loved by many and raised a good portion of the congregation!

Maureen Deckard is out of the hospital.

Gary Dyer is at the Medical Center in Bowling Green recovering from a hernia surgery.

BUSY SCHEDULES

Sometimes it seems one word would accurately describe modern America--busy. We certainly don't lack for something to do. Most of us are having trouble trying to juggle schedules to get everything done. There's always one more meeting to attend, one more project to complete, one more place to be and one more person to see.

The sad part about this is that God often is the one who gets crowded out. What with work, school club meetings, ball games, and so forth, we'll just have to hope the Lord understands. There's no time to pray today. Bible study will have to wait until things slow down a little bit, if they ever do. As far as church attendance is concerned--well, we'll get there when we can.

There is one word we must learn if we want to slow our schedules down. It is the simple two-letter word, NO. We must learn to say, "NO" to those who want us to take on one more project. We must say, "NO" when the kids want to join one more club, even if it is a worthwhile one. There just may not be time to play every sport that comes along.

Actually we seem pretty good at telling God "NO". "No, we can't go visit that person." "No, we can't teach that Bible class." "No, we can't be at church tonight." Somehow it never seems to cross some Christian's minds that they can tell someone, "No, I have something to do for Christ tonight."

It's just a matter of learning to take time for God. It may mean not doing something we want to do, but then Christians are supposed to deny themselves. (Matt. 16:24) It may mean not doing what someone else wants us to do, but then Christians are to seek the kingdom of God first. (Matt. 6:33) We must take time for God.

Lord's Supper Reading: John 11:25 - 27 ²⁵Jesus said unto her, I am the resurrection, and the life: he that believeth in me, though he were dead, yet shall he live: ²⁶And whosoever liveth and believeth in me shall never die.
