

Tidings From Timothy

You all did a great job with Friends and Family day. We had a much bigger crowd than last year and there certainly was plenty of food. I appreciate all that you all have been doing to keep the congregation a caring and friendly place to worship God. Show that hospitality again to the Wilmoth's as Paul preaches for me today. I know he will preach the truth and he has been a great help to me during these summer meetings.

Rejoice: We continue to have good news on the spiritual front with the baptism of Cybil Bartley. She has made the very best decision for her soul and has a true family of God here at Mt. Gilead.

Young Men's Service and Gospel Meeting: I will be in a Meeting this week with the Pleasant Hill congregation. It will go through Thursday night at 7pm each evening. Tonight is the Monroe County Youth Devotional with some of our young men doing the preaching. This will be at 5pm tonight with a fellowship meal following. A flyer is posted for the Meeting and Youth rally at the desk out front.

In Need of Prayer: Lavonne Welch has had an infection of some sort in the knee they replaced and had to go back to the hospital but is out now. Ruby Howard is back at home. Others seem to be on the mend, but keep those on the sick list in your prayers.

There is nothing we need more greatly in the church of the Lord than a proper arranging of priorities. God has always demanded first place in the lives of His people (Exodus 20:3-6, Matthew 22:37, 6:33). In fact, with God it is first place or no place. And, the home is the best place for proper priorities to be indelibly written on the hearts of our children when the following things are adhered to:

1. When we are early to the ballgame, but late to worship services.
2. When we see that our children do their school work but never check to see if they have completed their Bible school lesson?
3. When they cannot stay up late on school nights lest it infringe upon their school work, but they can stay up and watch the "late show" on Saturday night, even though they will be attending Bible school the next morning?
4. We will not let them miss school, even though they do not want to attend, but we cater to their whims and let them miss Bible school because they happen not to want to attend that given day?
5. We know the names of their public school teachers but we cannot call the names of all their Bible school teachers at church?
6. We will serve as room mother or president of PTA at the public school but we will never take part in arranging for various functions for their Bible class?
7. We attend their public school open house but do not attend the open house on the closing day of Vacation Bible School?
8. We will not take our vacation so as to cause them to miss any school, but we have no qualms of conscience about our vacation during the time of VBS or a gospel meeting.
9. They see us go to work even though we do not feel too well, but stay at home from church services under the same circumstances?
10. They see us avidly look at and study their school work, but never pay any attention at all to the handwork brought home from their Bible classes?

Yes, with such situations prevailing, what priorities are being established in the hearts of our children?

Study the Bible?

God speaks to us today through the Holy Word of God - The Bible (Hebrews 1:1-2). The Scriptures instruct us in the way God requires His people to live (2 Timothy 3:16,17). The Bible is powerful and able to save us (Romans 1:16; James 1:21-25), if we will hear, learn and obey it.

Ephesians 1:3 - 7 ³Blessed be the God and Father of our Lord Jesus Christ, who hath blessed us with all spiritual blessings in heavenly places in Christ: ⁴According as he hath chosen us in him before the foundation of the world, that we should be holy and without blame before him in love: ⁵Having predestinated us unto the adoption of children by Jesus Christ to himself, according to the good pleasure of his will, ⁶To the praise of the glory of his grace, wherein he hath made us accepted in the beloved. ⁷In whom we have redemption through his blood, the forgiveness of sins, according to the riches of his grace;
